

THE INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH ON
UNLIMITED LOVE

On the occasion of International Youth Day 2016:

Youth essays on peace, tolerance and human rights

12 August 2016, Friday

11 AM – 1 PM

Conference Room 3

United Nations Headquarters, New York, USA

Please join us for a morning of celebration sponsored by the Institute for Research on Unlimited Love featuring young people between the ages of 11 – 22 who will recite their award winning essays on principles of human rights, religious freedom, tolerance, peace and love for all humanity

www.UnlimitedLoveInstitute.org

Welcome and Facilitation: Stephen G. Post, Director, Institute for Research on Unlimited Love

Key Note Speakers:

Reverend Dr. Otis Moss, Jr., Pastor Emeritus, Olivet Institutional Baptist Church

Aisha al-Adawiya, Founder and President, Women in Islam

Youth Presenters

Drew Morgan, USA

Sofia Gondal, Pakistan

Yasmeen Azam, Jordan

Nguyen Dinh Nguyen, Vietnam

Beatriz Lopes, Brazil

Leora Eisenberg, USA

Natalie Phagu, Guyana

Tenging Lama, Nepal

Maria Paula Cervera Gonzalez, Colombia

Sunday T. Ogbaga as Read by Ose Okojie, Nigeria

Interlude by: Luis Mora, United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA)

Violin Meditation by Joanna Kaczorowska, Guest Artist

For those without UN Grounds Pass, please RSVP to Stephen Post: post@stephengpost.com by 29 July to obtain a ticket to enter the UN

Please note that seats will be made available on a first come, first served basis